Welcome to the First Love Grays Art Trail!

Come and visit to see some of the brilliant work artists are producing, take part in an event, or catch a film between 22nd - 30th July!

Grays is the largest town in Thurrock and features many parks, a riverfront, a local theatre, shops and restaurants and much more! We'll be working with the Grays Town Management Partnership and local businesses to get some art and culture around the town centre, free for you to enjoy!

Places of Interest

Jackie Burns

Terrestrial and Extra-Terrestrial Landscape Artist, working mainly in acrylic on canvas, digital, and mixed media. Jewellery designer and maker, working mainly in sterling silver, semi-precious stone and glass.

Sense In

The Parish Church of Saint Peter and Saint Paul - Rachel O'Dwyer

Samantha Reilly

I specialise in collage and printmaking consisting of a variety of collages and prints which have been developed from the collages. The pieces are a mix of old and new media and deal with issues such as age, race and gender.

The White Hart - Jessica Ballantyne

Eve Guevara-Sansom

I've always been aspired to be an Artist as a Child- however, was moulded into other ideas because of postcode assessments of what working-class people should 'be'. I enjoy my creativity with relevant insights about life, politics and society through art.

Grays Wharf

Market

South Essex College

Sharon Vane

I'm an artist that likes to explore all sorts of mediums. My favourites are acrylic painting and glassware.

Carters Dessert Diner - Carters Artwork

Emily Meaney

I am an illustrator and homewares designer. I use inks and watercolours to paint with, creating a range of art pieces and prints. I am a young artist from Corringham and would love to take part in a lovely local event.

Thurrock Yacht Club - Francesca Tosetto

The Lightship Cafe - James Quinn - Geoff Stringfellow

Louise Rowe

I paint suburban scenes of Britain, often from my own photographs. I am also creating a comic book about suburbia. I have written two novels, Grey Gravity and Grey Goose set in places around Thurrock, they are part autobiography, part fantasy.

Big Local Festival - Wednesday 26 July

Monica Qing

I would like to use street art to transform negative urban spaces in Thurrock. My art work take shape in large paint on walls, sculpture and landscape.

The Community House

Seabrooke Rise - The Echoes

Ashley Palipana

I have won several art competitions such as Kinita art competition from Royal Opera house Purfleet, last summer and I have received the first prize. I have exhibited my art in the Europe's biggest international art fair at London.

Jen Farrant

My photography is acts act of mindfulness and gratitude and is an essential part of staying well. Looking for photographs means I am deeply engaged with the world every day; I actively look for things to celebrate about Thurrock.

Arooj Khan

As a practitioner, I am passionate about ensuring dialogue and participation features heavily within my activities, maintaining a focus on the social aspects and ensuring that the wider impact of my creative practise is emphasised throughout the process.

Brad Humble

I am Brad 'mrshoesineman' Rumble and I am a low brow, urban artist using multiple disciplines to bring my imagination to life. I suffer from BPD and thusly use art as an outlet for the confusing mess of emotions within.

John Gathercole

I am a contemporary fine artist who came to prominence during his collaboration with William Purnell as co-founder of the Kreative Union of Neo-aesthetic Terrorists, (the K.U.N.Tists). My comical yet challenging body of work focuses on the gaps in reality.
